ent, insisted that the physician should and minister to the suffering weby which he did, still over the pres of Hubard. Out of this incident add to have grown the grudge the resulted in the killing of to-a Miss Fitzpatrick, and three James A. Pettit, Jr., Mary ma Pettit—ranging in ages tyen to three years. He had a nd prominent family connec-

Mrs. Charles A. Patterson Later Confesses That She Murdered Him.

ise.

the shooting took place in Mount ir, a suburb. Two shots were fired, h striking Patterson in the back.

Patterson then thrust the revolunder her husband's body and inmed bystanders that her husband shot himself. She later confessed the police.

erson, it is said, come inent St. Louis family

Geo. McD. Blake & Co.,

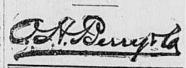

No. co Broad Street.

The New Killarney $1.85

Our reputation for showing new styles that take has led us to the "Killarney" again. regarded as a man of some because it has a style of its own that most people admire.

All the new fall things in dress are ready here.

FOSTER IS HELD FOR GRAND JURY

Girl in Case Tells Rather Conflicting Stories on Witness

fense against Ada Catherly es of infidelity, suits and other for both sides agreed to fix his bail at narital troubles were given as the $2,500, and he was released yesterday afternoon upon furnishing a bonds-of the police.

Months of matrimonial disagreement into the home, together with four sisters, two years ago last dinc, shortly after the death of their mother. A week after the home took charge of in September 1, 1911, charring cruelty.

Patterson brought suit in Chicago last seek against Emil V. Strouss, millionize he had of a clothing manutaturine head of a clothing manutaturin

Story Is Wenkened.

ohn W Cobb. Norfolk, J. M. Howell, P. Lart. W. A. Trice, Cliffon Forger, P. Jones, Frederick's Hall, J. F. Joy. Jones, Frederick's Hall, J. F. Joy. Jones, St. George R. Fitzhingh, Fredericksburg, H. T. Bowles, Chaylottesville, P. J. M. Clores, Madison, James Hay. Madison, J. W. Baptist, Buffalo Lithia Springs, R. B. Bunks, Alton, W. King Davis, Virginia, Lexington, H. C. Filler, Lovettaville, C. W. Bowers, Norfolk, George K. Fotts, Parhameville, W. H. Talley, Patersburg, G. K. Guy, Petersburg, G. F. Casey, Lynchburg, G. T. Cralle, Virginia, T. S. Harris, Harris Grove, R. S. Barbour, South Boster, Claude, Wsiker, Virginia, E. S. Marcereau, Staunton, Virginia

Sumpfis-E. K. Mercereau, Staunton;
F. G. Meritz Norfelk E. F. Le Fure,
Etiannton, J. D. Hodes, Martinaville,
J. Hesmand, Lynchourg, E. S. Clair borne, Blackstone, L. M. Jefferson, Dan-ville, Newport News Company Will Not Build Either of New Vessels.

OPPOSES EIGHT-HOUR LAW

Other Private Yards May De cline to Seek Government

pany would not hid for either of the great battleships authorized by Congress in March. Mr. Post intimated that he believed all of the private shipbuilding plants would refuse fit submit bids for the same reason. According to Mr. Post, the law authorized by the control of the builder violates the control of the builder violates any provision of the title builder violates any provision of the company objects particularly.

Until lorday it had been understood that the company confidently expected to build at least one of the new ships, and that the entire force of the yard would be put on an eight-hour day bails.

endenburg, however, upon and rebbed by twelve him that she knew men.

Solomen said he was going up Sevinth nor the day of enteenth Street when a man approach ed and asked him for a match. He came across with the match and got advertisement. I can attractively write your ads. They be interesting and command attention. A postal will bring my representative.

G. ASHBY IVEY, 10 SO. 12TH STREET. "Let me make your advertising

Here Is ON BATTLESHIP Victor-Victrola FOR $15.00

[Special to The Times-Dispatch.] whechburg, Va., September 25.—In treet battle in Salem street to-ht, between Jim Spencer and John on, both colored, three negroes heard a rumor that the vessel was afire. I said to my wife:

"It will be better to go home; there is sure to be an explosion."

"Hardly had I spoken the words when the most apalling report I ever heard in my life almost threw us to the ground. A great shot of flames suddenly appeared, illuminating the entire roadstead. Then, looking up at the sky, I distinguished little black points whirling through the air, then falling back into the sea. It seemed only a momeit—so rapidly did the ghastly scene pass—and the Liberte had vanished, leaving in place of the great battleship a shapeless mass on the waters."

A newspaper reporter, who was the scene immediately after the aster occurred, says the smoke scured the entire harbor and the shone red and lowering through flames spread iast.

of fire shot up; there was a deafening roar and debris of all kinds rained down upon our heads. All the boats which surrounded the Liberte were

AMUSEMENTS

Second Warring parts office words and story of the blade part of the words and the blade of the blade parts of the words and the blade of the blade

Ridgways "Her Majesty's Blend" It is a tea to tempt the appetite of an epicure. It is something exceptional in strength, flavor and purity.

This famous blend contains only freshly picked leaves and buds, and is put up in hermetically sealed tins. That's why it is always fresh when it reaches the consumer, and why it goes so much farther than ordinary

$1.00 per lb. 50c. per 1/2 lb. 25c. per 1/4 lb. May Now be Had in Town at Best Stores down upon our heads. All the boats which surrounded the Liberte were engulfed in the whirlpools caused by the sinking ship. They vanished amid the deapairing cries of the crew. We could see nothing of the Liberte. It disappeared in the dense smoke and the boiling waters."

On reaching the wreck the reporter found that the mooring buoy had been blown a considerable distance. The battleship itself was a mass of buckled plating, inextricably mixed with torn bollers and broken machinery. Puffs of smoke and steam darted in and out from the vessel's mangled carcass.

Petty Officer Leon, one of the survivors who was taken aboard the Republique, said:

I was in my hammock and heard the shouts, and then flames were all around me. Then I knew no more:
Commander Dekrauderan, of the Republique, said that when the explosion occurred his vessel was shaken from stem to stern.

It is now considered almost estables that that the danster was due to the want it and will not have it.

The play is so "big," so dramatic, and so intense, that this resume is weak and almost trifing; the last act, with its thoroughly natural and yet pathetic ending is omitted, because one can hardly describe it in a limited space, but of the people who are play ing it, at least those who have the principal parts, it is necessary to say a word.

Charles Mackay is powered.

Commander DeKrauderan, of the Republique, said that when the exit plosion occurred his vessel was shaken from stem to stern.

It is now considered almost established that the disaster was due to the watch perceived a dense smoke comfing from the fore part of the ship. He reported this to the officers, who promptly ordered that the magazines he flooded as a first precaution. The men whose duty it was went to open the valves communicating with the sea, but returned precipitately, saying that it was impossible to carry out their orders on account of the thick poisonous fumes rising from the magazines, making the task of approaching practically impossible.

It was shortly after this that the terrific explosion came. poisonous fumes rising from the magazines, making the task of approaching practically impossible.

It was shortly after this that the terrific explosion came, enguising all those on the ship and those around.

Some idea of the violence of the explosion may be had from the fact that the officer commanding the gunery schoolship Foudre, anchored three kilometers (156 miles) from the Liberte, was killed on his own quarterdeck by n ideal servant, and were good, save Gideon Burhe was artificial as Raymond Kemble, as Mrs Darwin, gave than convincing performance, unusually pretty, in the pretmost womanly sense, and she with all air heart and a great t of intelligence and understandder work in the second act, in liar, was of a very high order

Worth seeing Here all week

A M G.

Muny Musical Successes.

Unlike many light operas of later day fame, the popularity of which hang upon a single melody, is 'The Chocolate Soldier,' which comes to the Academy to-morrow and Thursday nights.

The Chocolate Soldier' is filled with ter, "Thralaia" the dreaming lilt of 'Falling in Love," and the sprightly "Chocolate Soldier," are each melodies that delight the musical pilicipe. It is a comic opera that lives up to the meaning of its classification, and Oscar Straus has written harmonies around the keenly witty lines of George Bar-

DEATHS

OFFATT—Died, September 24, 1211, at 10:45 P. M., at her residence, 721 Miller Avenue, Barton Heights MRS JULIA A MOFFATT, widow of Hugh M. Moffatt. She leaves, besides her mother, Mrs. A-P. Curtis, three daughters—Jessie, Edith and Marion—to mourn their loss.

Funeral from residence at 4 P. Teneral from resid Funeral from residence at 4 P. M. TUESDAY. Interment Oakwood, Sullivan.

Funeral service at St. Peter's Church WEDNESDAY MORNING at 16 o'clock. Friends and acquaintances of the family respectfully invited to attend.

county, Va. his former home.

SMITH-Entered into rest, September 25, 1811, at 5.35 A. M., MRS, MARY J. SMITH, widow of George C. Smith, of Atlee, Hanover country, Va., in the sixty-fixth year of her age.
Funeral from her late residence, No. 428 North Elm Street, Richmond, Va., WEDNESDAY, September 27, at 11 A. M. Interment in Hollywood, Friends and acquaintances are invited.

WOOD-Died, September 25, 1911, MRS SUSIE L WOOD, daughter of H. C. and late S. F. Hechler Funeral from family section in Oakwood THIS (Tuesday) MORNING at 11 o'clock, Friends of the fami-ly are invited to attend.

VOODWARD-Died. September 25, 1911, at the residence of his sister, Miss Rate Woodward. Roseneath Foad, CHARLES E. WOODWARD. The tuneral will take place WED-NESDAY at 1 clock P. M. Interment in Hollywood Cemetery.

WOOD.-Died, at 16 36 P. M. September 25, MRS, JACKSON B. WOOD. Funeral at Second Baptist Church TO-DAY at 5 o'clock P. M.

FOR TORPID LIVER. A torpid flyer deranges the system, and produces SICK HEADACHE,_ Dyspopsia, Costiveness, Rheu-matism, Saltow Skin and Piles. There is no better remedy for these common diseases than DR. TUTT'S LIVER PILLS, as a trial will prove.

Take Pio Substitute.

man for that amount. man for that amount.

Dr. William J. Maybee, president of the Children's Home Society, and the girl were the only witnesses examined. Dr. Maybee told of receiving her into the home, together with four sisters, two years ago last June, shortly

March 12, 1907—Explosion wreeked sattlessip Lean, in Fourier during 197 officers and men perished.

August 14, 1908—Gun exploded schoolship Couronne; 6 lost,

September 23, 1908—Gun exploded on hoard cruiser La Touche Treville, st Toulon; 13 dend.

August 27, 1910—Submarine Pluviose sunk in Calais harbor; 27 per-

In addition, there have been so many fires and explosions in the Tou-lon navy yard that an official investigation has been held to determine the responsibility. The result of this was never permitted to become public.

Seatember 20, 1911-Gun exploded on cruiser Gloire, at Toulon; 14